

Name Writing Practice

Ages about 4–6

Black and white · Free printable

First name only

The child writes their own first name. One capital letter, then lowercase letters.
Start on the left.

Use this after letter formation. No surname.

On each practice page

1. A grown-up writes the first name once, in pencil.
2. The child traces that pencil writing.
3. The child copies it underneath.
4. The child covers the model and writes it again.

The practice lines are blank on purpose.

Note for grown-ups

First name only. No surname. Do not write the name in all capitals.

1. Write it once, in pencil.

Write the child's first name on the top line. Use one capital letter, then lowercase letters. Start at the left dot. Leave the other lines blank.

2. The child traces.

The child traces that pencil writing with a pencil. They start at the left dot and move left to right.

3. The child copies underneath.

On the next line, the child copies the name. The model stays where they can see it.

4. Cover the model.

Cover the pencil name. The child writes the first name from memory on the blank lines.

What this teaches

The child writes their own first name with one capital letter and the rest lowercase, starting on the left.

What comes next

They write their name on their other work.

What you need

A pencil, and the grown-up's pencil copy of the first name.

Trace, then copy

First name only. The lines below are blank for the real name.

Grown-up writes the first name in pencil.

Trace that pencil writing. Start at the left dot.

start

Three horizontal lines for writing: a solid top line, a dotted middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Copy underneath.

One capital letter, then lowercase letters.

start

Three horizontal lines for writing: a solid top line, a dotted middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Copy underneath again.

Start at the left dot. Go left to right.

start

Three horizontal lines for writing: a solid top line, a dotted middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Trace, then copy again

A grown-up writes the first name in pencil on the top line.

Grown-up writes the first name in pencil.

Trace that pencil writing. Start at the left dot.

start

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Copy underneath.

One capital letter, then lowercase letters.

start

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Copy underneath again.

Start at the left dot. Go left to right.

start

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Practise once more

Start at the left dot. One capital letter, then lowercase letters.

Grown-up writes the first name in pencil.

Trace that pencil writing. Start at the left dot.

start

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Copy underneath.

One capital letter, then lowercase letters.

start

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Copy underneath again.

Start at the left dot. Go left to right.

start

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Cover the model

Cover the pencil name. Write the first name from memory.
One capital letter, then lowercase letters. Start at the left dot.

Write your first name.

start

Write it again.

start

One more time.

start

Why not all capitals?

Example, not your name.

Sam is a made-up first name on this page only. It is not the child's name.

Like this

One capital letter, then lowercase letters.

start

• Sam

Not like this

All capitals. A name is not written like this.

start

• SAM

A name starts with one capital letter, and the other letters are lowercase.

Name card

Cut along the dashed line. Write the first name on the card for a book or a coat peg.
One capital letter, then lowercase letters. No surname.

CUT

First name
for a book or a coat peg

start

.....

●

.....

cut along the dashed line

cut

cut